

MANIAC KILLS FORMER RUSHVILLE MAN IN THE CONNERSVILLE JAIL

Frank Robinson, Crazed Over Religion, Attacked Prisoners, Injuring Several

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED

And Hose Turned on the Madman
Before He Was Finally Subdued

[By a Staff Correspondent.]

CONNERSVILLE, TUESDAY NOON.—Excitement ran high here this morning for over an hour when it was learned that a maniac who had been incarcerated in the county jail, was running amuck among the other prisoners, attacking them right and left. This report was supplemented by the intelligence that the frenzied man had killed one of the prisoners, and had beat another into a state of unconsciousness, and was falling to all that came within his reach.

Hundreds of excited citizens fairly swarmed about the jail, but none there were who could offer a plan to effect a capture and [corral] the infuriated man who was making the murderous attacks.

The officers tried to get to the man and overpower him, but, as often were they beaten back. Three officers were put to flight on entering the jail.

The crazed individual is Harry Robinson, aged 45, married, having two children. He became suddenly demented over religion. Yesterday, following an attack which perturbed his mental condition, he declared he was inspired by God, and started on a preaching mission. All night he walked, accompanied by his little daughter, awakening people in the north part of this city. Shortly before sun up, he tired, and the insane father and frightened child made their bed for a few hours in a straw stack. This morning about 9 o'clock he appeared at the police station declaring his wife and child were dead. An investigation proved this statement to be false, and as soon as it was learned that he was demented he was placed in jail. In locking Robinson up, the officers turned him in with the other prisoners in the corridor, as he had become pacified.

For over a half hour he paced up and down the corridor, when suddenly he became as a demon attacking first one prisoner and then another. They fought him off as best they could, and several sought safety by locking themselves in the cells.

The prisoners were like rats caught in a trap; they could not do battle with the maniac who seemed to possess supernatural strength, neither could they escape the bombardment of iron cuspidors which he kept up.

One defenseless man, Austen Ford, who was partially paralyzed, fell under the blows of Robinson, and his head was beat to a pulp. Ford was formerly an expert telegrapher, and worked in Rushville nearly a year. A few years ago he lost the use of his right hand from paralysis, and since then he has worried continually, until at times his friends thought he was losing his mind. In the past few days he had grown worse, and he was only locked up last night, on the request of his mother.

After killing Ford, the insane man turned on an old man named Ring, and beat him unmercifully.

All this time the officers were trying to subdue and pacify the man, but without effect.

It was suggested that the fire department be called out and with the assistance of a strong pressure from a fire nozzle, together with the firemen and police, it was hoped that the maniac could be placed under control. Two of the firemen fell under his blows on entering the corridor with a stream of water, but the water soon had a telling effect, he was confused, thrown to the floor, and quickly given a hypodermic of morphine.

The bruised remains of Ford was taken from the jail and physicians attended the several other injured persons.

Robbins became insane over religion. He left his home last night in a rational condition, with his little daughter, saying he intended to attend the Salvation Army meeting. However, he did not appear at their meeting and was not seen until late last night, when people were awakened by a man preaching in the streets of the residence district.

The affair has thrown a gloom over the entire community as the insane murderer has a family dependent upon him, and the unfortunate man, who died at his hand, is survived by a grief stricken mother, who was dependent upon him.

VERSATILE IS THE NEW BARRISTER

Clarence C. Johnson of Vincennes, admitted to Rush County Bar To-day

Clarence C. Johnson, of Vincennes, was today admitted to the bar in the Rush county circuit court. Mr. Johnson's name was presented to the court by Congressman James E. Watson, who has known the young man for several years.

Mr. Johnson will not begin practicing law at this time, but will resume his studies at the law office of Larz Whitcomb in Indianapolis. He is a rising young man of commanding appearance, a fluent talker, and has considerable literary ability, having followed newspaper work for several years.

After completing his study of law in Indianapolis Mr. Johnson will return to Rushville and hang out his shingle. His versatility is evidenced by the fact that aside from many other accomplishments the young man is the author of a song which is fast gaining popularity "My Indiana Mary."

HARRIE JONES WON TWO GOOD RACES

Piloted Two Winners at the Minnesota State Fair Races Yesterday

At the Minnesota State fair yesterday Harrie Jones, of this city, piloted two winners in the three races of the day. "Hazel Grattan" won in straight heats, best time 2:15½. Jones drove Platt Jr., the horse owned by Bob Ewing, the Cincinnati base ball pitcher, to victory, winning the last three heats of a "real race." The last mile was stepped in 2:10¼, the fastest mile of the race. "Dan Patch" gave an exhibition mile, going in 1:38¼.

I. & C. DOING BIG BUSINESS ON ACCOUNT OF TWO FAIRS

The I. & C. traction company is doing a great business this month; possibly this week will be the greatest in the history of the company. Beginning today the company has a county fair on the Connersville and Shelbyville division and a circus on each end of the line, and thousands of passengers are traveling each way. The company is being highly complimented for handling the crowds, such as were here last week, without any accidents, which are almost invariably connected with special days.

COURT IS GETTING BUSY

Partition Case of McCoy Estate Taken Under Advisement

Several cases have come up in the present term of court, considering the short time that the court has been convened. Monday was spent in getting ready, and today the case of John Vannatta, who was charged with gaming, was tried, and on plea of guilty, he was fined five dollars and costs.

The evidence in the case of Pocahontas M. Carr, vs. Pocahontas M. Carr, administratrix of the estate of Sallie McCoy, deceased, for partition, was heard and taken under advisement.

The injunction case of Allen Jackson vs. the C. C. O. & St. L. railway company was dismissed.

THORPE BIGAMY CASE IN COURT

Defendant's Attorneys Make a Motion to Quash the Indictment

The bigamy case of Clara J. Thorpe, wife of Daniel Boone Thorpe and Will Levi was called today, and Young & Young, attorneys for the defendant, made a motion to quash the indictment. Judge Sparks will determine the matter later.

CARTHAGE TO HAVE COLLEGE WEDDING

Culmination of a Romance Which Had its First Innings at Earlham College

A college wedding will take place at high noon tomorrow at the home of Ex-county Assessor Newsom, in Carthage, in which Frank Gardner, of Richmond, and Miss Camilla Winslow are the contracting parties.

Mr. Gardner will graduate this year at Earlham college and is part owner and head chemist of Fetta Manufacturing Company of Richmond. Miss Winslow is a talented young lady and would have been a junior in Earlham had she attended this year.

The wedding ceremony will be performed by Prof. Elbert Russell, head of the Biblical department at Earlham and will be witnessed by about fifty fellow students of Earlham and other friends.

SUGGEST MUNCHER PARADE FOR THE FALL FESTIVAL

Rural Route Carrier Led Cline suggests that a feature be added to the Fall Festival next week, by setting aside one night or pride of the old "Munchers", a Rushville organization "not made in Germany." Those who have forgotten the pass word and distress signal can get same from the Grand P. P. O. at the hitch rack Monday evening.

MRS. W. A. DOWNEY DIED EARLY THIS MORNING

Rural Carrier Luther B. Downey, of West Seventh street received the sad message this morning that Mrs. Downey, wife of his brother William A. Downey, had died at her home in Irvington at one o'clock this morning. The particulars were not learned and the funeral arrangements are not announced. Mrs. Downey was well known here.

CONSOLIDATION WAS DISCUSSED

Board of Education Concedes to Country Superintendent Headlee's Views

RUSH COUNTY DISTINCTION

Walker Township was First in the State to Organize Consolidation of Schools

The county board of Education met with county superintendent W. O. Headlee, in his office yesterday and quite a profitable meeting was held. A number of small business details were acted upon among others were adopting certain institute books and a motion was made and passed, also that teachers give more time to penmanship in the future than most of teachers have been doing in the past few years.

The most important subject however, which came before the board, was presented by county superintendent in behalf of consolidation of schools for Rush county. Mr. Headlee presented the present conditions to the board and in an able manner showed to them the advantages of consolidation of the township schools. The address was listened to intently and a spirit of school consolidation prevailed among the members of the board. The subject will be discussed and plans will possibly be made at the next meeting to consolidate the schools in some of the townships next year.

Washington township now has consolidated schools, in fact that township has the honor of being the first to lead in the State in consolidation and the plans have worked most favorably to both patrons and officials.

Additional Locals

Lewis Frazee was in Connersville today on a pleasure trip.

Marriage license have a have been issued to Frank Gardner, of Richmond and Miss Camilla Winslow of Carthage.

Charles Wilson who was working in W. E. Sargent's barber shop at the Windsor hotel resigned his position Saturday night.

Miss Nelle Kennedy, of East Seventh street figured in an exciting runaway near Milroy yesterday evening. The horse she was driving dashed down an embankment, overturning and wrecking the buggy, and slightly bruising the young lady.

Congressman Watson delivered the Labor Day celebration address at Batesville yesterday.

Leon Maxey was in Connersville today visiting friends and attending the opening day of the fair.

The funeral services of Miss Ethel Flory, who died Sunday morning at Dunreith, were held today at 10:30 a. m. at that place.

Dr. W. H. Smith was called to Raleigh this afternoon in consultation with Dr. Smullen over the case of Miss Daisy Holt, who is seriously ill.

KING OF ENTERTAINERS

Slowly Dying at His Home in This City

Edward Everette, at one time the leading colored man in this city, now lies in a precarious condition at his home on East 8th street. His days are numbered and old friends are coming to his rescue to aid him in the closing hours of his life.

Mr. Everette formerly conducted the Big Four barber shop here and was fairly well fixed in this world's goods, but has been reduced almost to poverty in the last few years. In years gone by, he was known all over this part of Indiana as "The King of Entertainers" and gave elaborate colored dances, cake walks and like entertainments.

ONLY ONE MEMBER OF OLD REGIMENT

Rushville Will Have Only One Representative at Sixteenth Indiana Volunteer Reunion

The Old Sixteenth Indiana Volunteers will hold their annual reunion at Indianapolis on next Tuesday, but Rushville will only furnish one representative of the old company, which went from here. George H. Peary, of this city, is the only remaining member of that famous old regiment, from this part of the State.

Recently Mr. Peary's heart was made glad as only an old veteran's heart can be made, when he heard that his "old bunkie," with whom he had shared his canteen and blanket in those awful days of hardships, whom he had believed to be dead for fifteen years, was still alive and living in Philadelphia.

His comrade is Lucian Berry, a son of Rev. Berry, who was a pioneer preacher in this community. A happy meeting is looked forward to next Tuesday if both are able to be at the reunion of the "old boys in blue."

RUSHVILLE CHILDREN IN A TRIP IN AN AIR SHIP

The Sunday Cincinnati Enquirer contained a children story, which was accompanied by photos of Mary Louise Bliss, Phyllis Dean, Preston Sargent, Dorothy Kitchen, of Rushville, Indiana. A fiction story carried the children through the realms of fancy with an old general in an airship. A third edition of these stories will appear in the Enquirer next Sunday.

—Miss Ida Reagle returned home after a pleasant visit at Gwynnville for several weeks.

—Frank Randolph and Ross Davison, of Franklin county were here today.

—Miss Leah O'Neal accompanied Miss Nellie Hunt to her home in Indianapolis and will remain over Sunday.

—Floyd C. Chambers, of Damascus, Ohio, will come tonight as a guest of Bernie Spradling and the two will attend the college wedding of Frank Gardner and Miss Camilla Winslow, of Carthage tomorrow.

Mental Medicine.
A somewhat eccentric physician who recently died would order patients to take walks, say daily, on the left side of the street, returning by the other side; another he would order to arise each morning at a certain hour and eat cheese with ginger beer; another to take supper precisely at midnight and eat only apples, or he would instruct the patient to put just so many grains of salt on the egg he was to eat and part his hair in a different way each day. His object was to get the mind of the patient on something else than symptoms, and this scheme worked well in many cases, especially when the patient was suffering from melancholia.—New York Times.

WANTS A SALOON IN THE COUNTRY

Alec McCarty Would Start Grog Shop in Rush County

NOW HAS AN OLD HOUSE

Just Over the County Line. Near Knightstown—Will Apply for License

With the abolition of the country toll gates, came the blazing of the lone country roads with rural route boxes and telephone poles, and for time immemorial, an occasional oasis was to be found along the way, where the weary traveler could quench a thirst occasioned by the drive and the dust. Years ago such places were in the form of country inns. But time wrought many changes, and today the only beverage to be found is the wholesome, refreshing and exhilarating buttermilk.

But there comes now one amongst us who offers to restore the "pastoral gin mill;" he would open a "Last Chance" saloon in the north part of Rush county near Knightstown. But the people living in that community are not taking kindly to the generous offer of the man, who would be—in his own language—a public benefactor.

Alec McCarty is the man who would establish the new saloon on Rush county soil. He formerly lived in Rushville. During the past few weeks he has experienced a strenuous session at Knightstown, where the citizens of Wayne township drove him, together with other "grog shop" proprietors, from that field of endeavor. Now comes the prodigal back to his native heath. But his own will receive him not.

The saloon is on the wane; the people not only oppose the opening of new territory and the handiwork of expansionists, but they are directing hard blows to the solar plexus to score a knock-out to the ones now in running order. Truly, they are in "running order," literally and figuratively.

McCarty owns a small building about three quarters of a mile from Knightstown in Rush county, and it is understood that he will apply for liquor license at the next session of the Rush county commissioners court.

TOOK DINNER AT COUNTY POOR FARM TO-DAY

The county commissioners, county council, sheriff and county surveyor took dinner at the county poor farm today and inspected the premises. The contract for the erection of a smoke-house at the poor farm was let to E. L. Kennedy for $575.

TEACHERS MAKING FINAL PLANS FOR SCHOOL TERM

Pupils Advised to Purchase Their Books Immediately

The Daily Republican will publish tomorrow a list of books and a partial list of supplies needed for each grade. Pupils who were promoted and have cards to show the same are advised to buy their books and supplies at once so as to avoid any shortage which might result on account the new arrangements of selling books.

A list for the high school will be published Friday. There is not the danger of a shortage for the high school as the order for the local high school is not sold outside of the city.

A meeting of all of the teachers of the city will be held in the high school Assembly Room at the Graham school, Saturday, at three o'clock.

The teachers of the Havens, Jackson and Graham schools will meet in special meetings at their respective buildings at 2 o'clock Saturday to arrange for final details of opening.

The Dedication exercises for the new Graham school will be held in the School Auditorium, Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. All are invited, no special invitations have been issued.

The building will be open for inspection at 9:30 Thursday morning.

The public schools will open at 8:30 o'clock Sept. 9th.

Respectively,

Society News

Mrs. Frank Wilson will entertain the Grand club at her home on North Perkins street Wednesday afternoon.

One of the most brilliant events of the season occurred last evening, when the Misses Cora Smith, Myrtle and Phronia Ferguson entertained with a porch party at the home of the latter, in honor of their guest Miss Piccola V. Posey, of Bellaire, Ohio. The spacious veranda was beautifully decorated in pink and white, those colors being used throughout the evening. Music was furnished by Mr. Stewart, of Indianapolis. One feature of the evening was the donkey game, the prize being awarded to Mr. George Richardson, of this city. An elaborate four-course supper was served to twenty-four guests. The out-of-town guests were Misses Remor Harris, Luetta Daniels and Messrs Homer Larne and Emory Harris, of Connersville, Misses Ora Skelton Sadie Bennett and Mr. D. W. Jones, of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ben L. Smith entertained at a rose luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Rose Wright of Ottumwa, Iowa, and Mrs. Jesse Slaughter, of Chicago. The other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ed. Swain and Mrs. Donald Smith, of Shelbyville.

HERE'S WHERE THE FUN COMES IN.

Postoffice folks are having a deal of fun over a letter received by one of the rural carriers here. The letter reads: "Friend Tom: As you run the free delivery past my place, I would like you to stop at Smith's store and bring me out a sack of salt and two sacks of flour and a horse collar; and just get him to stick in a set of whiffletrees under your buggy seat. If they don't fit you can take them back and exchange them on your next trip. And I'd be obliged if you'd stop at Jim Wheeler's and get one of his chicken coops and leave here, then I'd have the gobbler caught that he wants and you can take it to him as you go back. Had I better have it out along the road or will you come to the house after it? This free delivery is a great thing for us country people."

—Misses Emma and Lula Peters returned yesterday from Sunman after a two weeks visit with relatives.

—Miss Marie Peters has returned yesterday after spending her summer vacation with her cousin Miss Elsie Nieman.

RUSHVILLE, INDIANA, SEPTEMBER 3, 1907.

A FITTING MONUMENT

Rachel Mourning for Her Children
Will Represent Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 3.—The Andersonville monument commission appointed by Governor Hanly to select a site and erect a monument at Andersonville, Ga., in memory of the Indiana soldiers of the civil war who died in Andersonville prison, and who are buried in the national cemetery there, has selected a design and given the contract to the Montello Granite company of Montello, Wis. The legislature appropriated $10,000 for the purpose of erecting the monument and paying the expenses of the commission, and of this sum $7,000 will go into the monument. The design must be approved by the war department before the contract can be finally let and Governor Hanly must give his approval. The monument will stand in the center of Indiana's burial lot at the cemetery at Andersonville. The shaft will be twenty feet in height. The base will be fourteen feet square. The shaft proper will be constructed of Montello marble. The crowning figure will represent "Rachel Mourning for Her Children." The approaches to the shaft consist of a terrace on the four sides of three broad steps. Indiana has 653 soldiers buried at Andersonville. The monument will be completed so that it can be dedicated May 30, 1908. The members of the commission are Dr. R. C. Griffith of Morgantown, Ind., chairman; D. C. Smith of Crawfordsville, and C. W. Diggs of Winchester. Mr. Diggs is secretary of the commission.

The labor commission is rather congratulating itself that Labor Day in 1907 found the state singularly free from labor troubles of any kind. At present there are no strikes of importance of any kind save only the telegraphers' strike, and it is, of course, general and out of the proper jurisdiction of the Indiana commission. There is a lockout at Tell City which the commission is making every effort to bring to an end by means of arbitration. Only two strikes have had the attention of Commissioner George W. Purcell and his associates during the summer. One was the streetcar strike at Evansville and it was settled by compromise. The second strike of any magnitude was that at Elkhart, where the boilermakers of the Lake Shore went out because they objected to the introduction of the piece-work system. The management agreed to return to the old system and the men returned to the shops. There was no trouble. Two other strikes, both involving railroad men, came to the attention of the commission, but they were interstate matters, and outside the proper jurisdiction of the Indiana commission. The Indiana labor commission was created two years ago. At present it is made up of George W. Purcell, who was appointed May 9, and L. P. McCormack, who is serving a second term. The commission during its organization has been of great help in settling labor troubles in the state.

"Just why labor is a greater factor in politics in Marion county than it has been in years past might have impressed itself on anyone here who watched the parade." Such was the opinion of a prominent politician who was discussing political matters after the parade was over. "Those men are behind a movement," he remarked. "They ought to be pretty nearly able to do something with it. They have organization already. It is organization that stands for something more definite than does the ordinary political party. If they take such a thing into politics and keep it organized there and can keep up the enthusiasm that they show at such a time as Labor Day, they will be able to accomplish a good deal. There were more men in the parade yesterday than ever before. There are, I believe, more men in the unions in Marion county than there ever were before. I know for a certainty that there are more men in labor unions in Marion county in politics than there ever was before, and it is a thing that the politician might as well reckon with now as after he has been defeated for not reckoning with it."

Much Corn Ruined.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 3.—A severe electrical storm passed over southern Indiana yesterday afternoon, doing considerable damage. The storm was especially severe in Knox county, where much corn was ruined. Houses were unroofed and four structures were wrecked by falling trees, but no loss of life is reported. The damage in Knox county alone may reach $25-

600. In this vicinity the wind had a terrific velocity and many of the creeks are swollen.

Boilermaker's Perilous Plight.
Anderson, Ind., Sept. 3.—While he was inside a boiler cleaning it out, at the plant of the Indiana Brick company, Charles Eichler was probably fatally scalded by a workman turning steam into the boiler before Eichler could get out. The man who turned on the steam believed Eichler had finished the work. Eichler was terribly burned from the shoulders down.

Reckless Auto Driving.
Magent, Italy, Sept. 3.—The marquis Pallavicini and a lawyer named Naimano were killed in an automobile accident. The chauffeur, not noticing that the gate at a grade crossing was closed, ran his car through the gate and on the tracks just as a freight train bore down. The machine was wrecked and Naimano was killed outright. The marquis died a few minutes later.

NEW LAW COMMENDED

Honest Druggists Have Praise for the Pure Food Act.

New York, Sept. 3.—The need of ethics in the conduct of the drug trade and the importance of a high sense of honor in the practice of the pharmaceutical profession were emphasized in the address delivered at the fifty-fifth annual convention of the American Pharmaceutical association, which is in progress here. Several hundred members from all parts of the country are present and the speakers included Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the agricultural department, and Professor Jose E. Diaz of the University of Havana, Cuba, who is to translate in the Spanish language the United States pharmacopoeia, which is made a standard under the pure food and drug act of congress.

In his annual address President Leo Ellet of South Bend, Ind., said that the pure food act was in its final analysis, an injunction to tell the truth. He added that it was the inception of a new era in the trade and profession and was a silver lining to the cloud which had hovered over the drug business for many years. President Ellet recommended that the association put itself on record as favoring a higher educational standard in the profession and a more rigid examination by boards of pharmacy.

Dr. Wiley declared that the object of the pure food and drugs law was not punishment. "We do not want to put people in jail," he said, "but we want to see that the man who wants to do business ethically will be able to do so and receive legal protection. We depend upon such associations as yours for our assistance."

City Officers Held.
Fremont, Neb., Sept. 3.—City Attorney C. Abbott, chief of Police Peterson and Street Commissioner Fletcher were arrested upon warrants sworn out by Union Pacific officials for using violence on laborers who were laying tracks across streets. While the chief of police kept back the laborers with his revolver the city attorney and street commissioner tore up the track just laid. Abbott is a prominent attorney and is a candidate for the nomination for district judge. The city officials have six special officers guarding the contested streets.

Sir Harry Is Safe.
Tangier, Sept. 3.—The anxiety expressed here regarding the safety of Caid Sir Harry MacLean, due to the protracted absence of direct news from the general, was relieved yesterday by the arrival of letters from MacLean himself. He is in good health and is with Raisuli in the Ben Ar oasis territory. Letters from Raisuli to the British minister here laying down the terms upon which the bandit chief will release MacLean were also received. Raisuli suggests that an emissary be sent to Ben Ar oasis to negotiate with him.

China's Friendly Designs.
Shanghai, Sept. 3.—Preparations are on foot to give Secretary Taft a big reception upon his arrival here. Thirty-two Chinese corporations of this city are participating in the movement, which has been approved by the viceroy. The project is not official and is regarded as a distinct evidence of the friendly feeling existing here toward the United States.

Building Fell to Pieces.
Paducah, Ky., Sept. 3.—Without warning, the American Express company building collapsed at 5:10 last evening. A. F. Ingersoll, agent for the American Express company, was caught in the debris and it required more than two hours to dig him out. He was not badly injured. Three other attaches of the office escaped uninjured.

LOVE'S TEST.

Where Her Great Help Was Needed
Her Heart Was Willing.

"Professor," said the fair co-ed after a pause, "let me ask you if you ever use the phrase 'different than?'" "Never!" exclaimed the young professor of rhetoric and English literature. "It exasperates me, Miss Pinkie, whenever I see it in print."

"I am glad we have something in common," she rejoined. "Nevertheless, Professor de Purey, I cannot be your wife."

"Mr. Koopong," asked the young woman, with downcast eyes, "now that I happen to think of it, do you ever use the phrase 'different than?'"

"I certainly do not," said the enamored capitalist. "It is not only incorrect, but utterly absurd."

"I am glad to hear you say so. Still, Mr. Koopong, it is useless to urge me. I never can be anything more to you than a friend."

"Let me ask you one question, Mr. Pnoodles," she said. "Do you ever use the phrase 'different than?'"

"Why—er—I presume I have used it carelessly sometimes, Miss P-Pinkie," stammered the embarrassed youth.

"But now that you have called my attention to it I shall be careful to say 'different from' hereafter."

"Claude," she exclaimed, clasping her hands ecstatically and gazing at him with soulful eyes, "my answer is yes—yes! You poor, dear boy, you need a helpmate, and I'll be the helpmate!"—Chicago Tribune.

BRUTAL RIOTERS

At Steubenville Mob Attacks
Brave Girls Who Defend Strike Breakers.

A DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR

Labor Day Riot in Ohio Town That Has an Element of Distinctive and Savage Brutality.

Two Plucky Telephone Girls Sought to Save Unknown Men and Were Savagely Assailed.

Steubenville, O., Sept. 3.—A Labor Day riot that bid fair to end in a tragedy had it not been for the bravery of two young women employed in the telephone exchange, occurred here yesterday afternoon. The victim's of the crowd's rage were Joseph Harbison, who received a fractured skull, and John Hutton, who was cut and bruised, while in shielding the men, Miss Mary Magee and Eula Rooke received cuts and bruises about the head and body, and are in a serious condition. Harbison and Hutton came here from St. Louis to work in a mine where a strike is in progress. Yesterday as they left the telephone office they were set upon by a crowd and were being badly beaten when the two girls rushed into the thick of the trouble and, frantically pushing and shoving their way through about fifty men, reached the two victims, to whom the young women were strangers.

The girls threw themselves on the prostrate men, protecting their heads and receiving on their own bodies the kicks and blows of the mob. One of the men who was wielding a piece of iron struck Miss Magee on the head. Another piece of iron almost broke Miss Rooke's arm.

In a moment of let-up in the assault police reached the scene and rescued Harbison and Hutton. Only one arrest was made. Harbison was removed to the mayor's office and later to Gill hospital, where it was found that his skull was fractured.

SAN FRANCISCO RIOT

Old Labor Feud Breaks Out and Several Are Wounded.

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—Several men were wounded, one probably fatally, during a riot which occurred yesterday at the Market street ferry landing. The riot was precipitated by an attack on a non-union inspector of the United Railroads, and was participated in by more than a thousand people.

The wounded: John Peterson, union man, shot in the groin, may die; L. J. Hall, United Railways inspector, shot in head; L. J. Durston, motorman, hit on head with rocks, badly cut; Thomas Bowman, union iron worker, shot in the leg.

The parade of the labor unions affiliated with the building trades council had just been dismissed at the corner of Main and Mission streets, and a large crowd was waiting at the ferry to go across the bay to Shell Mound park. For some cause, not clearly understood but believed to have been the running of a streetcar close to the assembled people, an attack was made upon Inspector L. J. Hall, who was starting the cars for the United Railroads. Fearing the rage of the angry crowd, Conductor James Watkins and Motorman F. J. Durston drew their revolvers and fired into the mob. This infuriated the mob still more, and the fighting soon extended along Market street from the ferry to the junction of Sansome and Sutter street, a distance of about seven blocks.

The first man arrested by the police was a man named Summerfield, a member of the structural iron workers' union. A crowd of men attempted to rescue Summerfield, but without success. John Peterson received a serious wound in the groin during the attempt to rescue Summerfield. The police arrested James Watkins, conductor; F. J. Durston, motorman, and Robert Tyler, conductor. Several members of the mob were also arrested, but subsequently released for lack of evidence.

Trouble Started by Woman.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 3.—A Labor Day riot which but for the timely arrival of the police would apparently have assumed formidable proportions, resulted in the injury of four non-union streetcar employees yesterday afternoon. The trouble occurred at First and Walnut street and was started by a woman. The Labor day parade had just broken up and the participants swarming on the cars to go to a park, when the woman refused to ride on a car operated by non-union men, and jeered at the unionists for doing so, exhorting them to "pull the seats off." Her words inflamed the crowd immediately, as the streetcar men have already voted to go on strike and will probably walk out Thursday night. Four cars operated by non-union crews were attacked and Motorman A. E. Whitehouse and Conductor F. Friedly were badly injured by men wielding boulders, while two other non-union car men were less severely beaten. A riot call and the prompt appearance of the police prevented the trouble from spreading.

STATE FAIR HORSES

Great Show of Blooded Animals in the New Livestock Pavilion at Indianapolis.

THE PRIZES AMOUNT TO $6,500

Coach and Draft Premiums Reach
$3,277 and on Light Harness and Saddlers $3,223—Events for Women and Pony Classes for Children.

The Indiana State Board of Agriculture has not only built the largest and finest livestock show pavilion in America, but during the week of the State Fair, opening at Indianapolis on September 9, the board has arranged for some very elaborate shows of horses and cattle which will be quite in keeping with the fine new building. In years gone by, the live stock shows at the Indiana Fair have been held outdoors, in sun and rain, or under tents, but hereafter they will take place in a building that cost $110,000, and which contains 5,000 opera chairs, which will be free to spectators. The board not only has a splendid pavilion for these displays of live stock, but it will in September offer about double the amount of premiums of other years. In the livestock pavilion alone, not including the prizes for many other departments of the fair, the ribbons will have a money value of $18,897. This sum is equal to the total premium list of the Indiana Fair twelve or fifteen years ago.

The amount offered for coach and draft horses at the next Indiana exposition is $3,277; light harness and show horses, $3,223, making the total for horses that go into the arena of the new pavilion $6,500. The prizes on beef cattle amount to $10,167 and on dairy cattle, $2,230.

On draft and coach horses, the premiums offered are as follows: French, $390; American bred Percherons, $400; Clydesdales, $492; Shires, Belgians, hackneys and German coach, $32 in each class; draft teams, $100; grade draft, $57; mules, $270.

In the classes for carriage, light harness, saddle horses and ponies the premium list has had a thorough revision, and the prizes offered are: Standard bred horses, $498; registered Morgans, $100; park horses, $120; high-steppers, $230; turnouts, $110; tandems, $140; roadsters, $290; runabouts, $45; lady's turnout, $150; spike teams and four-in-hands, $150; family turnout, $45; saddle horses, three gaits, $275; five gaits, $300; three gaits and driving horses, $65; equestrian, $110. With the poor facilities of other years, the Indiana Fair has been marked more and more by pretentious horse shows, the number and quality of horses increasing every year. With the arena of the live stock pavilion for a show place, and with a largely increased premium list, it is expected that the coming shows will be the best that have ever been held in Indiana. The classes in which women may compete have been increased and many of them will be seen in the saddles and holding the reins in the pavilion. The State board not only offers $300 in prizes for the best saddlers with five gaits, but there is a class for the champion, and the American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association offers a $75 silver cup for the champion. In the class for combination three-gaited saddle and driving horses, the animals will first be shown to vehicles, then be unharnessed in the arena, saddled and ridden by the driver. For the best woman equestrian there is a prize of $25, with second and third awards. Three prizes are offered for girls and as many more for boys in the riding classes.

The premiums offered on Shetland ponies amount to $560, much larger than in other years, and on other ponies $60.

The light harness shows will be under the direction of C. H. Anthony of Muncie, and Fred A. Swain of that city will be his assistant.

The draft and coach horses will be seen both in arena contests and in the parades of the horses and cattle which are to be given in the pavilion. David Wallace of Indianapolis is the board member in charge of the heavy horses. In the German coach and hackney classes, M. A. McDonald of Lebanon will be the judge. In the contests for draft teams, the horses must be hitched to trucks and farm wagons. It is expected that some of the finest truck teams in Indianapolis will compete for the prizes in this class.

Two or three years ago the humble mule received no recognition from the Indiana fair, but for the September exposition this year there are eight classes for mules, with three premiums for each class, including mules four years old and over to colts under a year, and there will be a number of contesting teams hitched to trucks and wagons.

The fair management expects to make the pony contests especially attractive to children. Prizes will be distributed for single ponies, tandems, four-in-hands or four abreast, match team in harness, and saddlers, and the pony show will end with a championship contest among the mares and geldings. There will also be classes for boy and girl drivers. The premiums offered will, it is thought, attract the best ponies from the larger herds of Indiana and Illinois.

Arlington.

Sunday was one of the hot days of the year.

Hon. Wm. A. Posey, the popular County clerk, of Rush Circuit court, attended church on Sunday at the Christian church.

The protracted meeting which was commenced some two weeks ago at the Christian church still continues. Rev. Mr. Burns is making a fine record as a preacher of power and ability.

Miss Mary Brown, of Indianapolis visited her father Nicholas Brown and other home folks on Sunday.

The new M. E. church is going ahead rapidly now—the walls being up and the carpenters are putting up the rafters for the roof.

Real estate deals are still being made—T. M. Meredith has sold to Isaac Macey his residence and bought from Mr. Macy forty acres of Rush county land for $75 per acre along "Little Blue" river, south of Arlington.

Rev. Mr. Gard, a former pastor of the Christian church at Arlington, died last Saturday at Elwood where he was taken off of the train some days ago after being stricken with paralysis. Mr. Gard was a splendid man and a Christian preacher of ability and loved by everyone here who knew him. His family have the sympathy of all the members of the church at this place.

The Christian Sunday school at this place is still growing in interest and numbers under the efficient management of Supt. Shauk and his able body of assistants, and they are now planning for a grand rally day on which they want to make a record breaker and hope to have an attendance of over 200. Last Sunday a week ago the attendance was 175 and last Sunday 124—considering the population of Arlington there is no school in Rush county that can compare to the Arlington Sunday school.

Mrs. J. S. Matthews is still nursing Mrs. James Johnson North west of town who is slowly very low with cancer—five weeks ago she was called to nurse her for four or five days, thinking she could not live over that—she still lives and suffers on. Her friends are doing all to relieve her awful suffering, but with all their efforts all they can do is to keep her under the influence of medicine and await the fatal end.

Mrs. W. A. Hysong has been quite ill for several days. Dr. Shauk has been attending her. She is now able to be out again.

The school children are beginning to inquire for tablets and pencils and articles for school work.

Wheat sowing will be the next work for the prosperous farmers then corn gathering. This has been a short but busy summer and in fact a prosperous one with the farmer.

The good ladies of Arlington are busy canning vegetables as the fruit crop is short, you can bet on the Rush county ladies having good things to eat. If it is not fruit it will be something else good to take its place.

N. R. Farlow our hardware merchant is going ahead with his new residence. W. A. Hysong is one of the workmen.

John S. Matthews made a statement with the I. & C. traction Co. for killing a calf owned by Mrs. Stanley—the accident happened about a month ago. The company acted in most honorable way and as soon as Mr. Matthews wrote them they at once sent their adjuster W. M. Frazee to Mr. Matthews and had a talk and come to a settlement at once.

Ira Allentharp who has been away on a very important business trip to Edinburg, Ind., and Onley, Ill., returned home Sunday morning and again returned to Edinburg in the evening—he will be away several days.

How to Treat a Sprain.

Sprains, though not so serious, are extremely painful. The patient should at once go to bed so as to secure perfect rest, and the affected part should be confined by a splint behind and held in place by a comfortably applied bandage. The position of the limb should be such as to relax the muscles. Warm fomentations or cold effusions should be used, and acetate of lead and opium should be applied by means of wet rags. For both sprains and fractures ice bags are invaluable, and for the latter sand bags are sometimes necessary to weight down the affected limb.

A FINE ADDITION

Live Stock Pavilion Fills Long Felt Need at State Fair Ground.

QUICK WORK DONE ON IT

Though Not Begun Until Ninety Days Ago $100,000 Structure Is Ready For Opening of the Fair.

Legislature's Generosity Expected to Do Much Toward Promoting Live Stock Interests.

Indianapolis, Sept. 3.—The livestock pavilion built on the Indiana fair grounds by the state of Indiana at a cost of $100,000 has been finished, although work on the huge structure of brick, cement and steel began only ninety days ago, and it will be dedicated next Monday morning, the first day of the fair. The chief speaker at the dedicatory ceremonies will be Governor Hanly, who will review the history of the Indiana exposition and its relation to the farming industries. Some other speakers will be heard and a band concert will be given. The flights of an airship, vaudeville attractions and other features of the week will also be included in the dedication program. During the week 1,200 or more blooded horses and cattle, representing the best herds of the country, will appear in the area of the new pavilion to compete for the $20,000 offered in prizes. Among the herds that will be seen will be Jerseys belonging to Thomas Lawson of "frenzied finance" fame, who will exhibit a number of fancy animals from his farm near Boston. The state fair management has invited Lawson to come to the exposition with his cattle.

DEADLY FRAY WITH KNIVES

At Gilmour Leonard Patrick Cut the Throat of William Allen.

Gilmour, Ind., Sept. 3.—After being cut with a knife in the hands of Wm. Allen, aged thirty-five, who attacked Joseph Crackenbush, Leonard Patrick, thirty-two years old, pulled out his own pocketknife, and severed Allen's jugular vein, killing him almost instantly. Allen and Crackenbush engaged in an altercation here several days ago, and Allen threatened to kill Crackenbush. Yesterday while Crackenbush and Patrick were playing cards, Allen, who was intoxicated, entered the room and it is said attacked Crackenbush. Patrick says when he tried to stop the fight Allen cut him. Patrick then killed Allen. Patrick and Crackenbush were arrested and placed in jail at Sullivan.

Sacreligious Thief at Greensburg.

Greensburg, Ind., Sept. 3.—Fire in St. Mary's Catholic church caused a loss in excess of $5,000, and it may reach $7,000. Both the church and the schoolhouse adjoining was entered by a burglar, and it is thought the prowler accidentally ignited artificial flowers which were in a closet, and left before he noticed the blaze. The fire reached the main altar before being extinguished. A painting valued at $600 was burned. Bloodhounds were called into service, and they trailed footprints to a point some blocks distant, where a horse and buggy had been hitched. There is no clue to the identity of the burglar.

Lightning Shatters Bed.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 3.—While Mrs. John Doughty, near this city, was asleep in bed, and while a storm was sweeping overhead, an electric bolt tore a hole through the roof of the dwelling, shattered the bed on which she was lying, and passed through the floor beneath, the pillow on which her head rested dropping through the hole to the floor below. Mrs. Doughty was severely shocked and burned, but is recovering.

Saloonist Held to Answer.

Anderson, Ind., September 3.—John Street, a local saloon keeper, is in jail without bond, awaiting the result of injuries inflicted on George White, when the two men had a fight. White was kicked about the stomach, and physicians believe he cannot recover.

Fatal Fall From Window.

Alexandria, Ind., Sept. 3.—Willard Runyan, while sitting in the Pythian club room, lost his balance and fell backward through the window to the street below. Death was instantaneous, his neck being broken. Runyan was twenty years old.

AT OLD TRICKS

The Notorious Marion Hudspeth Again in Trouble.

Omaha, Sept. 3.—James Clarke, who with J. Jackson of St. Louis was arrested by Detectives Devereese and Heitfield of Omaha on suspicion of safe-blowing, has been identified as the notorious Marion Hudspeth, who is alleged to be one of the best-known criminals in the United States. The two men are held awaiting developments. Hudspeth fifteen years ago was a member of the famous Sly-Wilson gang of safe-blowers and highwaymen. Dick and Charles Wilson, the man Sly and Hudspeth robbed a Missouri Pacific train near Omaha when $50,000 was said to have been the booty. Later they were charged with holding up another Missouri Pacific train near St. Louis and getting $75,000. Hudspeth and Sly were captured in Los Angeles and the Wilsons in Syracuse, where they killed a detective. Dick Wilson died in the electric chair and Charles is in Sing Sing. Hudspeth and Sly went to the Missouri penitentiary for twenty-five years and Hudspeth was released for aiding in suppressing a mutiny and giving valuable testimony which resulted in spotting the instigators.

DRAGGED DOWN TO DEATH

Three Young Men Caught in Illinois River Quicksands.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 3.—Quicksand in the Illinois river Sunday night caused the drowning of Charles McEnlee, Keeling Wilson and William Stinger of Lacon, Ill. The bodies were found upright in the river yesterday, all three held firmly by the quicksand, which reached above their knees. The young men attended the chicken fry given on Sunday by the business men of Lacon. At dusk they started home in a rowboat. It is thought that the boat was overturned and that the men were exhausted by the quicksand in their attempt to wade to shore. The water was barely over their heads where they were found.

Went Thirty-Two Rounds.

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—Labor Day gave to the world a new welterweight champion and supplied one of the greatest fights in the ring annals of California. In the thirty-second round of a scheduled forty-five round contest at Cofroth's arena, Young Ketchell, of Butte, Mont., knocked out Champion Joe Thomas of San Francisco in the presence of 8,000 people. Not until the champion had gone to the floor four times in quick succession did his seconds throw up the sponge. Thomas was so badly punished that he had to be carried to his corner, and it was several minutes before he recovered.

Last Word of Richard Mansfield.

New London, Conn., Sept. 3.—Following the burial of Richard Mansfield, the actor's final moments were described by a friend of the family. He said that Mansfield was in a deep sleep and that a few moments before his final breath he awoke and, holding the hand of his wife, said: "God is love." Mrs. Mansfield, with a pressure of the hand, responded, "Yes, God is love," and with that characteristic movement of the hand when he was assured of a thing, Mansfield breathed his last.

Great Earthquake Some Place.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A distinct earthquake shock, indicating a very severe seismic disturbance at a far distant point, was recorded on the weather bureau instruments here yesterday. The shock lasted an hour and a half.

ROLLED DOWN RIVER BANK

Train Left the Track Along the Kanawha River Near the Falls and Five Persons Were Killed.

Track Was Torn Up For Several Hundred Yards and Traffic Was Much Delayed.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 3.—A Chesapeake & Ohio local passenger train was derailed a mile below Kanawha Falls, thirty-one miles from this city, at 8 o'clock last night. Five persons were killed and eleven injured.

The dead: William Campbell, Veneta, W. Va.; Walter Saunders, Wendal, W. Va.; Silas Vaught, Gauley, W. Va.; Allen Leving, an expressman of Hinton, W. Va., and one white man unidentified.

Injured: Robert Allen, colored, of Hawknest, W. Va., leg broken. Injuries to the others are so slight that they continued on their journey. Spreading of the rails is supposed to have caused the accident. The track was torn up for several hundred yards and trains were delayed for several hours.

One coach, combination express, mail car and baggage car left the tracks and overturned, rolling toward the Kanawha river.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 3.—Several persons were injured last night when two passenger trains collided head-on on the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio railroad near Seabrook, a summer resort. No one was killed.

SYSTEMATIC RAT WAR

San Francisco Will Take No Chances With Bubonic Plague.

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—The health board reports an additional death from bubonic plague and two additional cases under suspicion since Saturday. The death was that of a woman and occurred in Berkeley, across the bay from San Francisco. This case falls within the limits of the statement by the plague authorities that all ports on the Pacific coast having intercourse with trans-Pacific points are subject to periodic appearances of the disease.

The rat war here is being prosecuted with energy and success under the system adopted last week by which the city is divided into twelve districts, each in charge of a physician, inspectors and assistants.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of my dear grandma Nancy A. Rodgers, who died August 28, 1906.

One sad year since grandma left us. Whom we cherished and loved so dear. What a welcome we would give her Were grandma with us here today. Though our hearts are sad and lonely, We hope to meet her some sweet day.

Oh! 'twas sad on that August day, To see our loved one pass away. She suffered long and murmured not. Though far away she is not forgot. Never shall the memory fade Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger Around the grave where she is laid.

EVERY DAY IS A NEW BEGINNING

Then why not begin today by putting all your small bills into one, having then only one place to pay, also making your payments smaller than you are now paying. If you need some money in order to do this, let us advance it to you as we have assisted thousands of others this way. Why not you?

All that is necessary to obtain the amount needed is to own household goods, pianos, horses, wagons, etc. We have our own original fifty week plan which gives you fifty weeks in which to pay back your loan.

60c is a weekly payment on a $25 loan.
$1.20 is a weekly payment on a $50 loan.
$1.80 is a weekly payment on a $75 loan.
$2.40 is a weekly payment on a $100 loan.
Other amounts in proportion.

If in need of money fill out the blank and mail to us, our agent will be in Rushville every Tuesday and will call on you.
